BEFRIENDING MY BRAIN
 BY EDEN SILVER-MYER
 Part of Oxfordshire's Art Weeks
 Wed 1 May - Sun 2 Jun
 'Befriending my Brain is about feeling like I finally have started to understand my mind, after 33 years of feeling like a square peg in round hole after round hole. After realising I am neurodivergent things made a lot more sense.' - Eden Silver-Myer

DROP IN WORKSHOPS WITH EDEN SILVER-MYER
 Sat 4 May, 10.30am-11.30am
 Create a collage all about YOU! Using lots of different art materials, explore what makes you, you.

Sat 11 May, 12pm-1pm
 What makes you, you? Explore your inner world using a variety of art materials, and let's celebrate YOU!
 This colourful drop in-session for adults is inspired by Eden's exhibition: Befriending My Brain.

SHOUTING QUIETLY
 BY CLIVE WRIGHT
 Tue 4 Jun - Sat 27 Jul
 Clive has held many solo exhibitions, each displaying a small sample of his total output of more than 500 pictures. On this occasion we see a collection of paintings chosen to reflect the range of his recent work. He often paints up to half a dozen pictures on a common theme. Here, single pictures have been selected to represent groups of related canvases.

DIDCOT DAIRY STORY
 CURATED BY DR LEAH HEWERDINE AND RUBY LIVESEY
 Wed 31 July - Sat 31 Aug

Join us as we take you on a trip down memory lane to fresh milk and eggs on your doorstep, social events for all the family, and the crowning of Miss Job's!
 The exhibition is part of the Didcot Dairy Story project, run by volunteers, which is raising funds in support of Sobell House Hospice and other important local causes.
